

THE CONNOISSEUR

Making your cupboards say "gastronome"

TASTE SEASONAL TORTELLINI

The Fresh Pasta Company has sourced some of the finest venison, braised it in wine until melt-in-your-mouth tenderness, and wrapped it in tortellini. The result is a robust, distinctly more masculine variant of the Italian classic. Available from Fortnum & Mason from £5.75.

WAKE UP TO WAFFLES

King of cooking, KitchenAid, has added an artisan waffle maker to its culinary arsenal. Simply turn it on – it'll tell you when to add the batter – close the lid, and wait for the beep. Like them well done? Twist the timer to your preferred cooking time. Available from Amazon for £269.99.

REAL MEN LEAVE THEIR OIL UNFILTERED

Olive-oil maker Filippo Berio has removed the filtering process on its extra-virgin bottles. The result is a cloudy oil with a rich, piquant taste that makes a can of tomato soup taste like it was prepared by Gordon Ramsay himself. Available from Sainsbury's for £6.99.
